On 17/11/1914, with a party of 13 men, he went into the thick bush and at once attacked the enemy, in strength about 100, including several Europeans, defeated them, and captured their machine guns and many loads of ammunition. On 27/12/1914 when on patrol duty, with a few men, he swam the Ekam River, which was held by the enemy, alone in the face of brisk fire, completed his reconnaissance on the further bank, and returned in safety. Two of his men were wounded while he was actually in the water."
